Project	Information systems with in organization case study Thaiunion Feedmill Co.,Ltd
Project Credits	2 Units
Candidates	Miss Siriwan Manop 5304800048
Advisor	Mr.Eak Bamrungsi
Program	Bachelor of Science
Field of study	Computer Science
B.E.	2557

Abstract

Thaiunion Feedmill Co.,Ltd brought information technology to come into driving management system within the organization aims to increase the effectiveness and benefits of use of information to community response is. Design and development of a system to support the work of the people in a search for the telephone number and email address to ease quickly. There are also plenty of service to book meeting rooms and use of the company car. Make it easy to use the service by the user for Web applications and the information store database such as telephone number. E-mail address of people booking a conference room and a history book the car without having to wait for the queue to book, because a user can check out the book from the book. On the development of relations within the Organization have developed using the PHP language as used in the development of the system and data storage with Appserv increase fast and efficient in their work.

Keywords: Find / Phone numbers / Email address / Booking meeting rooms / Book car / Thailand Union co., Ltd.