Abstract

The Provincial Electricity AmphoeKrathumbaen is a state enterprise infrastructure branch has the power to the public, industry and other industries and services are paid for electricity bill, or debit account.

The operation in the study of the accounting system is revenue. Different types of accounting study costs study the financial statements affect balance bank account learn how to get paid for electricity by check/ or cash , and the debit bank account to understand the operating system, and by following the steps in this document to use for the operation.

Therefore the operation, so the framework of the mission of the education provided know how to receive payment by direct debit bank accounts, there is a convenient time avoid problem of debt and can bring this experience and knowledge to use in the accounting career.