

Law and assistance efficiency. So this is the duty of government officer to look after in order to make such law provision is performed seriously and efficiently.

For the research recommendation, I have an opinion that it should be studied and bring the public defender system to initially use in Bangkok and main provinces of each region, however, the study and research have to be simultaneously performed in order to develop such system. In case of the operation according to this system is effective, it is expanded and operated to cover throughout the country. Moreover, People Aid Fund should be established in order to give the assistance regarding the lawyer to the alleged offender or defendant by enacting the law of fund establishment particularly and providing the committee, who aid the alleged offender or defendant in the criminal case, control the operation according to the fund objective.
